Treaty of Friendship and Non-Aggression between Cortesia Del Mar and Ruby

Joint Proclamation

Upon the ratification of this treaty by the representatives of the Republic of Ruby and Cortesia Del Mar, referred hereinafter to as the “Signing Parties,” agree that all past hostilities are ended and agree to work to further the goals of peace and friendship between the nations and hereby agree to these articles.

Article 1 - Non-Aggression

1. The Signing Parties agree to refrain from engaging in aggressive or harmful military or diplomatic actions or attacks upon each other.

2. The Signing Parties agree to respect each other’s sovereignty and to respect the internal affairs of each other.

3. The Signing Parties will not permit any citizens or groups in their nation to undertake harmful or aggressive actions upon the other.

Article 2 - Ratification and Negotiation

1. This document shall come into effect immediately upon its proper ratification according to the legal processes of each Signing Party.

2. Either Signing Party maintains the right to withdraw from this agreement but must give the other a week's notice before doing so.

3. This document is considered renewed in perpetuity unless a Signing Party withdraws.
